Exchange Radical Moments! Live Art Festival

When did art take you out of a daily routine lastly and into a moment when time stands still, pressed on pause in a way?

katrinamuri

Ah! This was "Preserving nature" on Dachstein in 2008. I did send you an invitation for the evening before that action but you seem not to have gotten it. Must have been the fault of Österreichische Post!

Exchange Radical Moments! Live Art Festival

What a pity! But regarding radical moments: is there a real radical moment in your life which you remember right now?

katrinamuri

I see now that you asked me what I will do in Linz. I will visit you and the whole bunch of cousins!

Exchange Radical Moments! Live Art Festival

Not only the Österreichische Post, also the Facebook internet connection seems to be a bit slow. You missed some questions – but never mind we can talk about all that in Linz on 11/11/11, ok?

katrinamuri

Maybe when I was chasing the visitors across and behind the fence close to the abyss in the snowstorm on Dachstein 2008, there was no escape :-). This was the invitation I sent you and you did not get, you know, what we spoke about before... Ok, you are right like always, Gerald, see you in Linz!!! And say hello to the girls! Kisses for Sascha and Sabine.

Exchange Radical Moments! Live Art Festival

Hugs and kisses to you and to our Cousin from China, to 你表弟皮婭. It was very nice talking to you!! See you soooooon!
